At its meeting of Tuesday, October 15, 2002, the King George County Board of Supervisors adopted the following resolution on a motion by Mr. Joseph W. Grzeika, seconded by Mr. Cedell Brooks, Jr. and carried unanimously:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, King George County is interested in facilitating access to public records; and

WHEREAS, King George County hosts a website providing on-line access to certain County records and information; and

WHEREAS, King George County is concerned with protecting certain biographical information, vital statistics, signatures and other personal information which may be contained in certain public information and public records; and

WHEREAS, King George County is concerned about and determined to make every effort to protect its citizens and the public at large from the threats of identity theft, computer fraud and all other forms of fraud; and

WHEREAS, King George County acknowledges that there are competing interests between providing and facilitating public access to public documents and protecting certain personal information; and

WHEREAS, there appears to be no current legislation in Virginia restricting on-line production of public documents; and

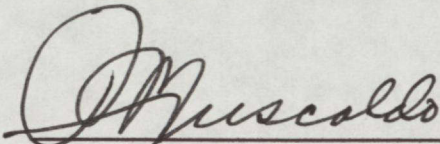

WHEREAS, there appears to be certain Virginia laws prohibiting the redaction, or alteration of public documents; and

THEREFORE, be it RESOLVED, that the King George County Board of Supervisors petitions Delegate Albert Pollard and Senator John Chichester to sponsor or work to affect legislation which allows for and/or mandates the redaction or alteration of on-line production of public documents to protect certain personal information including but not limited to the following:

1. Social Security Number
2. Place of Birth
3. Date of Birth
4. Mother's Maiden Name
5. Signatures
