

PROCLAMATION

May 20, 2025

RECOGNIZING JEAN HILL ON HER 100TH BIRTHDAY

WHEREAS, Jean Hill was raised in the Weedonville and Cleydael area of King George County off of Route 206 (Dahlgren Road); and

WHEREAS, she dedicated her professional career to serving her community, notably as a receptionist at Naval Surface Warfare Center Dahlgren Division, and her personal life to raising her three children; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hill has enriched the spiritual life of her community through her avid participation in her church choir, dedicated membership to Two Rivers Baptist Church, as well as her vital involvement in the initial success of the Peace Lutheran Church preschool; and

WHEREAS, she has expressed her creativity and skill as a wonderful seamstress, enjoying quilting classes at the Citizen Center with King George Parks and Recreation, as well as finds joy and fulfillment in gardening, cultivating beautiful flowers and bountiful vegetables, especially her prized tomatoes, and is renowned by her children and community for her culinary talents, particularly her pot roast and French apple pie; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hill deeply appreciates the service and dedication of King George Fire and Rescue, acknowledging their assistance to her family throughout the years; and

WHEREAS, she is a cancer survivor, which demonstrates her strength and resilience, but ultimately, attributes her longevity and vitality to her active lifestyle, particularly her daily walks with Jas, her devoted companion and beloved Pomeranian named after her brother; and

WHEREAS, King George County is deeply honored to have Jean Hill as a lifelong resident.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the King George County Board of Supervisors, on behalf of the citizens of King George County, Virginia, does hereby extend its warmest congratulations and heartfelt best wishes to Jean Hill on the occasion of her 100th birthday and expresses its gratitude for her remarkable life, her contributions to our community, and her enduring spirit.

FURTHER, BE IT RESOLVED, that this board encourages all residents to join in celebrating this momentous milestone and to recognize Jean Hill as an inspiration to us all.

ADOPTED this twentieth day of May 2025 by

---

William Davis, Chair