RECOGNIZING BETTY WOMERSLEY ON HER 100TH BIRTHDAY

WHEREAS, Betty Womersley has been a resident of the Northern Neck region of Virginia for the past 20 years, residing in Colonial Beach, Warsaw, and now, King George; and

WHEREAS, she dedicated her professional career to public service as an inmate hearing officer at Powhatan Prison and devoted her personal life as a loving mother to her two children, who have blessed her with a grandchild and three great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Womersley enjoys an active and enriching life, pursuing hobbies such as playing the piano, reading, and dancing, where she practiced sharing this particular passion with others by teaching professional ballroom dancing; and

WHEREAS, she is a colon cancer survivor, which coupled with her career and other life experiences, truly demonstrates just how much strength and resilience she has within her; and

WHEREAS, she personally attributes her remarkable longevity to staying active throughout her life; and

WHEREAS, King George County is deeply honored to have Betty Womersley as a resident.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the King George County Board of Supervisors, on behalf of the citizens of King George County, Virginia, does hereby extend its sincere congratulations and genuine best wishes to Betty Womersley on the occasion of her 100th birthday and expresses its appreciation for her remarkable life, her contributions to our community, and her lasting spirit.

FURTHER, BE IT RESOLVED, that this board encourages all residents to join in celebrating this meaningful milestone and to recognize Betty Womersley as an inspiration to us all.
